

Elders Stories

The First Nations Elders relate stories told to them thru out time saying the Spirit Horses were always here on Turtle island known as North America for as long as the oral stories have been told.

The little horses were wild life like the deer and the moose and elk and roamed by the thousands all over Turtle island.